SUMMER MS VOLLEYBALL CLINIC 2024

For all students entering grades 6-9

July 15-18

Sponsored by the Ridgewood Community School & the Ridgewood High School Volleyball Coaching Staff

Clinic Staff

Clinic Director, Jaime Gilfedder

Jaime is the varsity coach at the high school, and recently, the team won several league division titles, the Bergen County Tournament, and were in the Group 4 state finals, and they won their state sectional. Jaime played four years of varsity volleyball at Northern Valley Old Tappan and went on to play four years at Salisbury University.

Assistant Coaches - Our coaching staff has worked and/or played for the Ridgewood High School program for numerous years. Not only are they all teachers in the district, but they also have a strong knowledge of the game of volleyball.

Former Players – Get to meet former players who had such an amazing experience with Ridgewood volleyball, they came back to share their skills and love of the game!

What to Bring

Students should bring knee pads and a water bottle.

Camp Info

The clinic will stress fundamental skills, lead-up games and introduce important team concepts for offensive and defensive play.
